

Bylaws of the Old Glebe Civic Association

Executive Committee:

- (1) Regular meetings of the executive committee shall be held at times and places designated by the president in a notice of the meetings.
- (2) Special meetings of the executive committee shall be called by the secretary, at the direction of the president, at a time and place to be designated in the notice of the meeting.
- (3) The executive committee shall fill all vacancies in the elective offices, except the office of the president, and all vacancies in the nominating committee.
- (4) Any member of the executive committee unable to attend a meeting may give a written proxy to any member of the association in good standing, to vote in his place.
- (5) A majority of the members of the executive committee shall constitute a quorum. Less than a quorum may adjourn a meeting to a fixed time and place; no further notice of any adjourned meeting may be required.

Elections:

The retiring president shall be in charge of the election of officers of the association, the elective members of the executive committee, and the elective delegates to the Arlington County Civic Federation. The persons standing for election to each office shall be those proposed by the nominating committee and those nominated from the floor whose nominations are seconded by two members of the association in good standing. Voting shall be by written ballot or by show of hands, whichever the president shall direct. Only those members of the association in good standing and present at the regular annual meeting of the association may vote. Any person receiving a majority of the votes of those members present and voting shall be elected. In the event no candidate receives a majority of votes cast for any office, a run-off vote shall immediately be taken on the two persons receiving the greatest number of votes.

Definition of the Geographical Area Included in the Old Glebe Civic Association:

The geographical boundaries of the OGCA shall be as follows:

- (1) From 36th Street North to Military Road, including the houses on the east side of Glebe and the west side of Military Road.
- (2) From 36th Street and Dittmar to 37th Road North, through Gulf Branch Park, following the west side of Gulf Branch creek to Military Road. Within these boundaries, adjoining cul de sacs and side streets shall be included.
- (3) The attached map (amendment 1) is to be made the official document of these boundaries.

Review of Financial Records:

The financial records of the association shall be reviewed at least once every two years by the president and one qualified person who is not a member of the executive committee.
